

BRITISH INTERNATIONAL HISTORY GROUP (BIHG)

Call for papers

The Twenty Second Annual Conference of the British International History Group is to be held this year between Thursday, 9 September and Saturday, 11 September 2010 at St Antony's College, Oxford.

The BIHG Committee invites you to contribute a paper to the conference. As in previous conferences we are pleased to receive offers to present papers on a wide range of subjects in International History, for any period. These include:

- Inter-State Diplomatic Relations
- Domestic Issues in Foreign Policy
- History of International Relations
- Military History (including strategic issues, POWs etc)
- Intelligence and/or Propaganda
- International Organisations and Institutions
- Inter-Imperial Relations
- International Economic Relations

We welcome contributions from postgraduate students and can provide them with some financial assistance to attend the conference should other sources be unavailable.

If you wish to offer a paper in any of the above areas please write to:
